Overview

As a qualified or experienced Teaching Assistant, you will already be supporting pupils to develop and progress within the classroom. However, you may be looking for the next step in your career. This course will support you in taking this next step and give you the knowledge and skills you need. By taking this course you will become a higher level TA and will be equipped to teach classes on your own and cover lessons when required. This makes you an invaluable source of support for your teacher and school.

Who is this course for?

This course is for a qualified or experienced Teaching Assistant, who is already established within a Teaching Assistant role.

Key Information

- Demonstrate you have the 33 HLTA professional standards
- Made up of seven units
- 360 guided learning hours (guided learning hours are the awarding bodies estimate of how long a learner will need to spend studying to complete their qualification)
- 36 credits at Level 4 (credits can be used for “credit transfer” towards other qualifications. They can be added together and built up over time)
- This is a distance-learning course that can be studied in your own time
- Assignments will be accessed via the online learning portal when they are to be completed and returned to the course tutor for assessment
- You will receive timely feedback to improve your work should you need to
- Personal Tutoring and coaching from a qualified teacher (the importance of this cannot be underestimated)
- After the successful completion of the course, you will receive your nationally recognised certificate.
- Suggested completion time – 360 hours Total Qualification Time (TQT)* with completion taking up to one year

*(TQT) is the total amount of time, in hours, expected to be spent by a Student to achieve a qualification. It includes both guided learning hours (which are listed separately) and hours spent in preparation, study, and assessment.

Course fees

Course fees are £480 inc vat. We want our courses to be affordable for everyone, so there are options to spread the cost across monthly payments, at no extra cost (please note, the balance must be cleared prior to receiving your certificate).

DBS (Disclosure & Barring Service) Check

As this course requires a school based work placement, you must be prepared to comply with the vetting procedures for those working with children and young people as required by current legislation (i.e. undertake an Enhanced Disclosure & Barring Service check).

Schools may process a voluntary DBS for you at no charge. If you do want your own DBS processing there will be an additional charge; this fee must be paid in addition to all other course related fees if you do not already have an active DBS.
